1.4.1 - Feedback on the syllabus

FEEDBACK ANALYSIS AND ACTION TAKEN

As a college affiliated to the University of Kerala, the institution adheres to the curricula prescribed by the University for both UG and PG courses. As part of its Quality Assurance Initiatives, IQAC collected feedback from students and teacher on both the UG and PG curricula for different subjects. This was done using a feedback form circulated in the Management Information System of Sanatana Dharma College (SDC CAMPUS GENIE). Model forms on the feedback of syllabus various stakeholders are provided. Teachers, students and selected alumni assessed the respective UG and PG curricula in terms of their suitability to student needs, the orderly presentation of content, the scope for research and project-related activities, congruence between content and expected learning outcomes, coverage of theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, suitability for competitive exams like CAT, JAM, NET etc., focus on skill development with priority to learning skill development and the effectiveness of evaluation procedures. The suggestions and recommendations were summarized and passed on to the University Boards of Studies of various disciplines and the Academic Council of the University of Kerala through representatives in these bodies. During the current year, the college had representatives to the Academic Council (One representative), Faculty (Two representatives), Board of Studies (12 Members) and Senate (One representative). The feedback was also used to enhance the process of curriculum transaction wherever necessary.
