Programme Outcomes

UG Programmes

On the completion of an Undergraduate Programme, learners should:

- 1. Demonstrate a comprehensive knowledge and understanding of the respective discipline and an awareness of interdisciplinary approaches.
- 2. Display communication skills in oral and written formats; using appropriate audiovisual media to expert/non-expert audiences.
- 3. Demonstrate the capability to apply analytic thought to a body of knowledge; analyze and evaluate evidence, arguments etc. on empirical terms.
- 4. Display theoretical, computational, experimental and practical skills.
- 5. Conduct innovative and independent thinking.
- 6. Demonstrate an awareness of professional and research ethics.
- 7. Apply soft skills like time management, team work, decision making skills, problem solving sills and leadership.

PG Programmes

On the completion of a Postgraduate Programme, learners should:

- 1. Display advanced knowledge and expertise in their respective disciplines.
- 2. Demonstrate an orientation towards interdisciplinary learning and research.
- 3. Involve in professional practice through the application of acquired knowledge and skills.
- 4. Involve in independent and collaborative work in accordance with professional ethics.
- 5. Develop intellectual property by publishing articles in high impact factor journals, conference proceedings etc.
- 6. Communicate the acquired knowledge and independent thoughts effectively through presentations, discussions and lectures.