Youth Congress march turns violent

Protest against backdoor appointments

The police use water cannons against Youth Congress activists, who were protesting against alleged backdoor appointments to various departments, in Thiruvananthapuram on Tuesday. *S. MAHISHA

STAFF REPORTER
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

A Youth Congress demonstration to the Secretariat alleging backdoor appointments in government officers turned violent on Tuesday.

Hundreds of activists marched to the Secretariat by around 1.30 p.m. raising slogans against the Left Democratic Front (LDF) government.

The agitation was led by Youth Congress State president Shan Parambil, K.S. Sabarimadhan, V.T. Balram, Anwar Sadath and Raji M. John, M.L.A.s.

Mr. Parambil accused the government of scuttling appointments through the Kerala Public Service Commission and ignoring rank lists to engaging undeserving people without proper appointment process.

Soon after the legislators addressed the agitators, some of them attempted to topple the barricades erected before the North Gate. While this led to tension, the police used water cannons to disperse the protesters. While they refused to relent, the police fired tear gas and grenades at least thrice, paving way for a full-blown clash.

The situation showed signs of escalation when the police attempted to take Mr. Parambil and some other Youth Congress activists in custody.

M.L.A.s arrested

However, peace was soon restored. Mr. Sabarimadhan and Mr. John were among those who were also taken to the Armed Reserve camp and subsequently arrested. Some agitators were also hospitalised for minor injuries.

Bumper prize for lottery seller

STAFF REPORTER
THIRUVANANTHAPURAM

Little would Shenkottai-naduve lottery seller Sharaludeen have known when a bunch of tickets went unsold that one of them would fetch him the first prize of ₹12 crore of the government-operated Kerala Christmas New Year Bumper Lottery.

Mr. Sharaludeen emerged the winner of the lottery when he arrived at the Directorate of Kerala State Lotteries with the winning ticket, beating the number - XG 358753. The winner, who hails from Ayoor in Kollam, has settled in Tamil Nadu since his childhood. While he worked abroad until four years ago, he took to farming and lottery sales since his return.

The winning ticket was part of a batch that he had purchased from an agency in Aryankavu. He is expected to receive ₹7.56 crore after the deduction of tax and the agent's commission.
